COMMISSIONERS' SALE.

In the Circuit Court of the United States for the Eastern District of Virginia:

JOHN G. POWELL AND EDWARD POWELL,

vs.

HAMPTON ROADS RAILWAY &amp; ELECTRIC CO.

PROVIDENT LIFE AND TRUST COMPANY,

vs.

HAMPTON ROADS RAILWAY &amp; ELECTRIC CO.

Pursuant to a certain decree entered in the Circuit Court of the United States, for the Eastern District of Virginia, on the 24th day of July, 1905, in the consolidated causes in equity styled John G. Powell and Edward Powell against the Hampton Roads Railway and Electric Company and the Provident Life and Trust Company of Philadelphia, Pa., against the Hampton Roads Railway and Electric Company, default having been made by the Hampton Roads Railway and Electric Company in the payment of $764,962.50, with interest thereon as required by said decree, we, the undersigned commissioners, will, in front of the Court House of the County of Elizabeth City, in the Town of Hampton, in the State of Virginia, on the 5th day of October, 1905, at 12 o'clock M. of that day, expose to sale at public auction, to the highest and best bidder or bidders, the franchises and property of the said Hampton Roads Railway and Electric Company; that is to say,

All of the rights, franchises, permits, property and assets of every kind conveyed by the Hampton Roads Railway and Electric Company to the Provident Life and Trust Company of Philadelphia, Pa., by a certain mortgage or deed of trust dated February 1st, 1901, and now in the possession and control of the receivers in the said consolidated causes, together with all the rights, franchises, property and assets pertaining to said company which may have been acquired by the said receivers, or either of them. Included in said rights, franchises, permits, property and assets are the lines of electric railway now operated by the receivers, or said consolidated causes, and said consolidated causes, and between Newport News, Hampton, Phoebus and Old Point Comfort, and between Hampton and Backrock Beach and between La Salle avenue and the power house on Herbert's creek, together with all side tracks, turnouts, switches, water tanks, wires, poles, power houses, dynamos, machinery of every kind, rolling stock, equipment of every kind, pertaining to said electric lines. And in addition to the above property all and singular the property of the Hampton Roads Railway and Electric Company now in the possession of the said receivers or to the possession of which they may be entitled, of every kind and description whatsoever, whether such property shall fall within the classification and description above given or not. For a more detailed description of said property reference is made to the inventory of the receivership heretofore filed in this cause, with such amendments thereto as have been made from time to time, as well as to the report of the said receivers from time to time made to the court; the inventory and reports are on file in the clerk's office of the Circuit Court of the United States, at Norfolk, Virginia, and may be there examined.

TERMS OF SALE: On the acceptance of any bid, the purchaser shall forthwith deposit with the commissioners, the sum of $20,000.00 in money or a certified check or checks on any National Bank or Trust Company in the city of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, and no bid shall be received or accepted without the said deposit being made—the said deposit shall be received as part payment for the property purchased.

Upon the confirmation by the court of the sale, the balance of the purchase price shall be paid by the successful bidder, either entirely in cash or partly in cash and partly by receipt to the commissioners for the dividends, payable to such purchaser out of the net proceeds of such sale upon any of the bonds or coupons held by the purchaser, PROVIDED, that not less than $200,000 in addition to the said $20,000 shall be paid in cash or Receiver's certificates, at par, with interest. And purchaser shall state to the commissioners at the time of the sale whether he proposes to pay the entire balance of the bid in cash or whether the purchaser desires to receipt for dividends upon bonds or coupons held by him. If the purchaser shall fail to make payment of the balance of the purchase price upon confirmation of the sale or to comply with any order of the court in respect thereto, then the sum deposited by such purchaser shall be forfeited as a penalty for such failure, and shall be applied to the expense of a re-sale. If the court shall not confirm the sale for which a deposit has been made, such deposit shall be returned to the bidder.

The purchase of the property shall not be construed as an election to accept any contract, agreement or term sold with the property and franchises which within four months after the delivery of the deed, the purchaser shall have elected not to assume. Upon the confirmation by the Court of the sale and the payment of the balance of the purchase price and upon order of the court directing the same, the commissioners will execute a good and sufficient deed for the premises so sold and purchased. The purchaser or his assigns shall, as a part consideration and in addition to the sum bid for such property, take the same and receive the deed or deeds therefor, on the express condition that to the extent that the income in the receivers' hands and the cash proceeds of the property sold shall be insufficient, the purchaser or his assigns shall pay, satisfy and discharge any and all indebtedness, obligations or liabilities which shall have been contracted or incurred by the receivers before they shall have delivered possession of the property sold, and also any and all indebtedness or liability contracted or incurred by the Hampton Roads Railway and Electric Company in the acquisition or operation of the mortgaged property prior to the appointment of the receivers which the court shall adjudge to be prior in lien or superior in equity to the said mortgage, and of which the court shall direct the payment, that is to say, the said sale shall be made subject to all demands, claims, abatement, discharges, lapses, superior in equity to the first mortgage bonds of the Hampton Roads Railway and Electric Company, as well as to all supply and labor liens and other liens and claims which may hereafter be adjudicated by the court to have priority over said mortgage bonds, provided, however, that such demands, orders, etc., or liens or claims have been heretofore proven before the commissioner in this cause, or shall be proven before the said commissioner prior to the first day of October, 1905, and not thereafter. But it is not intended by anything in this provision to require proof before said commissioner of any fee or cost, unless the court shall hereafter see fit to require the same. And all persons whom it may concern are hereby notified that all persons who hold claims of any character whatsoever against the said Hampton Roads Railway and Electric Company, or said receivers, are required to prove the same before the commissioner in this cause, prior to the first day of October, 1905, as above provided.

In the event that the said purchaser or purchasers, or his or their assigns, shall after final adjudication and demand refuse to pay any of the said indebtedness or liabilities, the persons holding the claim thereof, upon fifteen days' notice to such purchaser or purchasers, or his or their assigns, may file his petition in the said court to have such claim enforced against the property aforesaid, in accordance with the usual practice of the Circuit Court of the United States for the Eastern District of Virginia, in relation to claims of similar character; and such purchaser, or his assigns, shall have the right to appear and make defense to any claim or debt or demand so sought to be enforced; and any party shall have the right to appeal from any judgment, decree or order made thereon.

For the purpose of enforcing the foregoing provisions, jurisdiction of this cause will be retained and the court reserves the right to re-take and re-sell the property in the event that the said purchaser or purchasers or his or their assigns, shall fail to comply with any order of the court for the payment of such prior indebtedness or liability. The purchaser of the said property shall take the same subject to the performance by him, or his assigns, of all pending contracts heretofore lawfully made by the receivers in respect thereof, with all rights thereto enjoyed and held by the receivers. Upon payment of the purchase price by the purchaser or purchasers or upon making such provision as the court shall approve for the payment thereof, the commissioners will execute a deed or deeds conveying the property and franchises sold to such purchaser or purchasers, or his or their assigns and on the execution and delivery of such deed or deeds the grantee will be let into the possession of the premises so conveyed and the receivers will deliver such property over to the purchaser or purchasers, his or their assigns, subject to the condition that the court may re-take and re-sell the property in case any such purchaser or purchasers, his or their assigns, respectively, shall fail to pay any of the balance of the purchase price remaining unpaid, or to comply with any order of the court in respect to the payment of the prior indebtedness, obligations and liabilities as provided in said decree or said supplemental decree.

The purchaser or purchasers of the property and his or their assigns, respectively, after such delivery of said premises, shall hold, possess and enjoy the same, and all the rights, privileges, immunities and franchises appertaining thereto, as fully and completely as the Hampton Roads Railway and Electric Company, or the receivers thereof, now hold or enjoy the same, or held or enjoyed, or were entitled to hold or enjoy the same at the time of the execution of said mortgage or at any time since; and the purchaser or purchasers and his or their successors, or assigns, respectively, shall thereupon be entitled to have and hold the premises so conveyed free and discharged from the lien and incumbrance of said mortgage dated February 1st, 1901, and from the claims of all other parties to this cause and those claiming under them, save only as herein expressly reserved, but subject to such claims and allowances as heretofore ordered to be paid or hereafter shall be adjudged to be prior in lien or superior in equity to said mortgage and which as provided in said decree or supplemental decree may be required to be paid in addition to the purchase price bid.

The purchaser shall comply with any and every condition herein mentioned or mentioned in said decree as fully and completely as if expressly set out herein, reference thereto being hereby made. Until the confirmation of the sale of the mortgaged property under this decree, the Receivers shall continue in possession thereof.

(Signed) R. G. BICKFORD, W. J. NELMS, W. C. L. TALIAFERRO, GOODRICH HATTON, Commissioners.

I certify that the above named commissioners have entered into the bond required by the decree in the said advertisement mentioned.

GEO. E. BOWDEN, Clerk United States Circuit Court for the Eastern District of Virginia.
